BRUNELLO WINERIES TOP 10

- COLLEMATTONI Finally a true local. Montalcino's wineries are a multicultural hotpot. The great wines and the beauty of the landscape have brought many a foreigner (Milan and the rest of Italy included) to this area. But nothing nicer than the people who are literally from the land. The Bucci family has been living at Collemattoni for generations. The winery is run now by Marcello Bucci, who pours the Tuscan ancestral knowledge straight into his organic wines.
